

Eye of Newt and Tooth of Toad, You must come to South Middlebush Road Heed the Spell and get your Ticket To visit with the One most Wicked

Join us for a witchin' good time!

Eliza Blackheart of the Breckenvale Coven will enlighten us about the history of witchcraft and Halloween. With her charming cackle and dainty hat, she will discuss the origins of many customs and beliefs. Costumes are encouraged, with a prize for the most creative!

The Meadows Foundation is pleased to be hosting "Witchy Woman" by Alisa Dupuy of The Ladies of History. Alisa originated "The Ladies of History" with historical presentations and first person portrayals in 2006 out of her love of the important women in world history. Wearing the clothing of different historical periods, she brings history to life in a lively and fun way. As she says: "History doesn't have to be boring!" The main goal of The Ladies of History is to make history fun, exciting and memorable for the guests who attend her shows.

"Witchy Woman" will be presented on Friday, October 18, 2024 at 6 pm at 280 South Middlebush Road, Somerset, NJ. Tickets are $12 for members (available now) and $15 for non-members (available October 10th). Email tmf.org.1289@gmail.com to reserve tickets for payment at the door. Get your tickets now by following this link (https://ticketstripe.com/events/1037132) or QR code below – you don't want a hex on you, do you? (Just kidding!)

TheMeadowsFoundation.org

tmf.org.1289@gmail.com

PO Box 6321, Somerset, NJ 08875