

Hageman's Hideout is pleased to be hosting

Big G's Birthday Bash

For Special Guests By Invitation Only

Gordon "Big G" Pastrami is throwing one of his swell parties at his secret speakeasy called Hageman's Hideout for his [undisclosed number] birthday, and 20 specially selected guests are being invited to join the festivities. It will be on April 12, 2026 (Sunday) from 2-5 PM.

The party will begin with everyone singing Happy Birthday to Big G before he cuts the cake. Then the lucky guests will be entertained with the latest new music as they enjoy light fare and Hageman's legendary décor. Also served will be trendy speakeasy mocktails and – of course! – Big G's famous "bathtub gin". Everyone who is anyone will be clamoring to get an invite to this history-making event!

Pssst! Rumor has it that there is a hit out on one of the guests – and one of the other guests is tapped to do the dirty deed! No one knows who it will be – you'll have to be there to find out. So put on your glad rags and cozy up to the bar – and don't forget to look over your shoulder.

Calling all flappers and dappers - this event is the cat's meow! Step back 100 years as The Meadows Foundation presents an interactive MURDER MYSTERY, and YOU might be the murderer! Set in a prohibition-era speakeasy, guests will assume roles and play out the mystery, trying to figure out who done the deed. Prior to the event, guests will be sent information about their character, a description of the fictional event they are attending, suggestions on clothing and/or props and sample lingo to use during the event. You may choose your role from what is available when you purchase your ticket. (Please provide the name and email address of each person taking a role.) Upon arrival each guest will be provided a nametag and confidential information to be used during the affair. At certain points during the event additional information will be supplied to each guest - some confidential, some to be shared. There will also be semi-scripted question-answer periods. Included will be hors d'oeuvres (and birthday cake!) and our secret bar will offer mocktails of popular 1920s drinks (no alcohol). The event will run 2 to 3 hours.

To purchase tickets for this event, please scan the QR code below or visit <https://ticketstripe.com/HagemansHideout>. Tickets are $35 per person, $30 for Friends of the Meadows ($5 refunded upon arrival). There are 20 assigned roles and 10 "party crasher" (non-role) tickets, available on a first-come-first-served basis.
