THE GREEN JACKET RUSE

Before he was the Governor of Upper Canada, John Graves Simcoe was a British Colonel leading a daring, chaotic raid right through our backyard. Join us this March as we revisit the night of October 26, 1779, when the "Queen's Rangers" donned green coats to deceive the locals. From the burning of the Dutch Reformed Church to the dramatic ambush at New Brunswick, come hear the story of the raid that shook Somerset County.
